GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS BURGE TO RADIATION PROTECTION COMMISSION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Holly J. Burge of Raleigh to the N.C. Radiation Protection Commission.

Burge is a radiologist at Wake Radiology Consultants, P.A. She is a member of the American College of Radiology, the Radiological Society of North America, the American Institute of Ultrasound in Medicine, the N.C. Medical Society, the N.C. Ultrasound Society and the Wake County Medical Society. Burge received her bachelor's degree in biology from Youngstown State University in Ohio and her medical degree from Ohio State University College of Medicine in Columbus, Ohio.

The commission serves in an advisory role for the N.C. Department of Environment and Natural Resources in developing policies and programs concerning evaluation, determination and reduction of risk associated with radioactive material. There are 21 members on the commission, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints all members.
